

The Journey

And the Lord said to Abram, "Go forth from your land and your birthplace and your father's house to the land I will show you.

And I will make you a great nation and I will bless you and make your name great, and you shall be a blessing. And I will bless those who bless you, and those who damn you I will curse, and all the clans of the earth through you shall be blessed."

And Abram went forth as the Lord had spoken to him and Lot went forth with him, Abram being seventy-five years old when he left Haran.

A caravan of people on camels and horses traveling across a vast, orange-hued desert landscape under a cloudy sky. The scene is silhouetted against the bright, hazy light of the sky, suggesting a journey in a hot, arid environment.

And Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his nephew and all the goods they had gotten and the folk they had bought in Haran, and they set out on the way to the land of Canaan, and they came to the land of Canaan.

And Abram crossed through the land to the site of Shechem, to the Terebinth of the Oracle. The Canaanite was then in the land.

A caravan of people on camels and horses traveling through a vast, orange-hued desert landscape under a cloudy sky. The scene is captured in a cinematic style with a warm, golden light. The caravan is moving from left to right across the frame. The desert is characterized by rolling sand dunes and a clear, bright sky with some light clouds. The overall mood is one of a long, arduous journey in a desolate, ancient setting.

And the Lord appeared to Abram and said, “To your seed I will give this land.” And he built an altar to the Lord who had appeared to him.

And he pulled up his stakes from there for the high country east of Bethel and pitched his tent with Bethel to the west and Ai to the east, and he built there an altar to the Lord, and he invoked the name of the Lord.

And Abram journeyed onward by stages to the Negeb.

As Jesus walked alongside the Galilee Sea, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, throwing fishing nets into the sea, because they were fishermen. “Come, follow me,” he said, “and I’ll show you how to fish for people.” Right away, they left their nets and followed him.

Continuing on, he saw another set of brothers,
James the son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with Zebedee their father repairing their nets. Jesus called them and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him. Matthew 4: 18-22 (CEB)

Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I commanded you; and lo, I am with you all the days , even to the end of the age.”
