

I → Stevie
C

Lord, you're leading me [echo] with a cloud by day [echo]
And then in the night, [echo] the glow of a burning flame. [echo]

F C

And every-where I go I see you. [echo] And every-where I go I see you. [echo]

(In original, the last line is sung only once on this verse. It's sung twice [or more] on the other verses)

And you take my hand [echo] and you wash it clean [echo]
I know the promised land [echo] is light years ahead of me. [echo]

F C

And every-where I go I see you. [echo] And every-where I go I see you. [echo]

F C

And every-where I go I see you. [echo] And every-where I go I see you. [echo]

C
Well the eagle flies [echo] and the rivers run [echo]
I look through the night [echo] and I can see the rising sun. [echo]

F C

And every-where I go I see you. [echo] And every-where I go I see you. [echo]

F C

And every-where I go I see you. [echo] And every-where I go I see you. [echo]

C
Well the grass will die [echo] and the flowers fall, [echo]
But your word's alive [echo] and will be after all. [echo]

F C

And every-where I go I see you. [echo] And every-where I go I see you. [echo]

F C

And every-where I go I see you. [echo] And every-where I go I see you. [echo]

F C

And every-where I go I see you. [echo] And every-where I go I see you. [echo]

F C

And every-where I go I see you. [echo] And every-where I go I see you. . .
