

New Covenant Fellowship

December 19, 2021

“Belief, Action, Blessing” by Pastor Renée

“As soon as I heard your greeting, the baby in my womb jumped for joy. Happy is she who believed that the Lord would fulfill the promises he made to her.” Luke 1: 44-45

Men’s Emergency Shelter at NCF (starting 12/27)

C-U at Home and various city representatives are collaborating to hire and train staff for safe and secure emergency shelters, with a planned opening date of Dec 27 for the men at NCF. Walt Kelly is our representative and contact in this endeavor.

Leadership Team

Tim Clark and Suzanne D'Andria joined our December 13 meeting to discuss how our hope for the future of our worship impacts developing a balanced budget with room for emerging opportunities. We are excited to explore improvements to our stage accessibility and musical options to embrace a new song in 2022.

The Ministerial Alliance and Interfaith Alliance are sponsoring a brief candlelight prayer vigil this Tuesday December 21 at Douglass Park 5:30-5:45pm. Please join in prayer for peace, justice, love, healing, and unity in our community.

Christmas (12/23-26) and January 2 services will be online only.

New Covenant Fellowship embraces the good news that each person is created in God's image- inclusive of all cultures, races, genders, and orientations. We desire for each member of the body to express their God-given gifts to build up the church through participation and leadership- without regard to ethnicity, race, skin color, gender identity, sexual orientation, marital status, age, ability or disability.
