“Why are reparations necessary for Black agriculture and land ownership?”
by Mari Hunt Wassink

// If you do away with the yoke of oppression, with the pointing finger and malicious talk, and if you spend yourselves in behalf of the hungry, and satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then your light will rise in the darkness, and your night will become like the noonday. //

—Isaiah 58: 9b-10

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Leadership Team—Members of the Finance Team joined our February 6 meeting to discuss our history and future potential as we considered how to work for the good of all...especially for those in the household of faith. (Galatians 6:10)

Today! Mari Hunt Wassink will be our guest teacher on behalf of the Reparations Committee.

Next Week—Please send any announcements to roberto.sabas@gmail.com for next week's newsletter and bulletin. Thanks!

Charitable Donations—Our treasurer, Suzanne D'Andria, plans to send out 2022 donation receipts the first week of February via email. If you have questions or concerns, please contact her directly at treasurer@ncf-cu.com.
