

God, Thanks for giving us moments such as this one, in which we can talk to you and hear you more clearly – through the music, the community, and through Sharon's words.

Remind us, when we need it the most, that we're not alone, that we won't be shaken. Help us to look around and discern the possibilities that surround us, the choices we can still make: especially, the most creative, original, and unexpected choices – the ones that go against our most ingrained habits.

We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen