

“Share the Well” (Caedmon’s Call) – Key of F

F                    Bb                    F                    C
Share the well, share with your brother, share the well my friend
F                    Bb                    F                    C                    F
It takes a deeper well to love one another Share the well my friend
F                    Bb                    F                    C
Share the well, share with your sister, share the well my friend
F                    Bb                    F                    C                    F
It takes a deeper well to love one another Share the well my friend

C-F Dm-C Bb    C                    F
Je Ra Ji Ra, Ji Ra, De Ji Ra, De Ji Ji Ji
Je Ra Ji Ra, Ji Ra, De Ji Ra, De Ji Ji Ji

F                    Bb
Do you think the water knows
F                    C
Flowing down the mountain thaw
F                    Bb    F                    C                    F
Finally to find repose for any soul who cares to draw

F                    Bb                    F                    C
Some kindred keepers of this Earth On their way to join the flow
F                    Bb                    F                    C                    F
Are cast aside and left to thirst- tell me now it is not so

F                    Bb                    F                    C
We all share the water hole- the blessed day the monsoon comes
F                    Bb                    F                    C                    F
And in His image we are woven- every likeness every one
F                    Bb                    F                    C
From Kashmir to Karala under every banyan tree
F                    Bb                    F                    C                    F
Mothers for their children cry with empty jar and bended knee

F                    C                    Gm
You know I've heard good people say there's nothing I can do
   C                    C
That's half a world away well maybe you've got money
   F                    Bb
Maybe you've got time -maybe you've got the Living Well
   C
That ain't ever running dry
